

The EAST BAY DANCE CENTER presents

BOLLYWOOD DANCE

with

Flavors of Bollywood Dance Workshop Series

With a focus on fun, technique and style, Archana and Susan-Jane will introduce dancers to the many flavors of Bollywood in this spicy taster class. Students will learn specific choreography to the popular theme song to Slumdog Millionaire (“Jai ho!”) as well as get a chance to take new Bollywood and Bhangra moves across the floor.

NEW 8 week series

Wed. 7:30-9 PM

Starts Aug. 25th

$20 for single class

or

$132 for the series

Pre-register and pay by Aug. 24th: $120 (10% discount)

About the Instructors:

Archana Sachdev has been dancing professionally for over 13 years. She has worked with top Indian choreographers and singers and was chosen Miss Talented for Miss India Worldwide 2002 for her Indian fusion dance performance. Now in the Bay Area, Archana is currently studying Expressive Arts Therapy.

Susan-Jane Harrison trained at the Royal Academy of Dramatic Art in London and has performed throughout the UK and the Bay Area. She has danced with Akat and is currently Artistic Director for BollyRitmo. As well as teaching and choreographing, she has taught Laban Movement for actors and dancers of all ages.

Classes will be held at the East Bay Dance Center. Please call (510)-336-3262 for info.

The EAST BAY DANCE CENTER is proud to teach, support and share the arts. For more information, please visit www.eastbaydancecenter.org

EAST BAY DANCE CENTER
1318 GLENFIELD AVE. * OAKLAND, CA 94602
(510)-336-3262